HILTON HEAD ISLAND
SOUTH CAROLINA

In a setting of tall pines, rustic oaks, and tropical palms, lies an experience - Shipyard. Covering approximately 800 acres, Shipyard is located on the south end of Hilton Head Island.

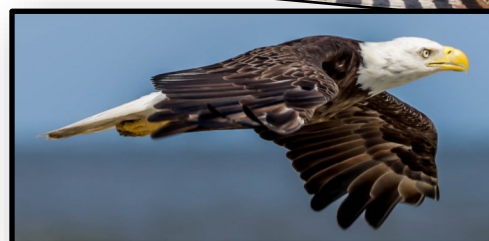

If one word could describe Shipyard, it would be diversified. Recreational facilities include championship golf and tennis as well as a premier spa and wellness facility. Paths winding around the plantation provide trails for bikers and joggers of all ages. Lagoons, alligators, and island foliage are just a few of the beautiful back-grounds for picturesque settings. Choices of accommodations range from villas and homes to a world-class resort hotel.

As a private residential resort community, residents can enjoy all the amenities available over the changing seasons. Many take advantage of its most prized possession—the beach. Sunshine by day and warm sea breezes by night beckon sun lovers, fitness enthusiasts, and retirees to enjoy the Atlantic shoreline.
